Dear Mr. Meredith, dear colleague,

from university to university: I greet you and i congratulate you on your success.

I hate your other colleagues, those pale faces with a smulgy heart; i am ashamed of each of them. You are a veritable Daniel, dear Mr. Meredith. And your victory was not the victory of a colour, but the victory of a right. I love your courage, i admire your persistence, i hope for the justice.

With best wishes

your

Dear Miss Voucha:

Allow me to thank you for your good wishes.

For some one who has taken the time to sit down and write me a letter to express such kind thoughts, your English is definitely overlooked.

Thank you again for your kind thoughts.

Sincerely yours,
